

Remote access involves the following elements:

1. Creation of User profile (if you do not already have one)
2. Activating remote access (assuming your administrator allows remote access via email domain)
3. Confirm that you belong to an institution

1) Create a user profile (if you already have a user profile please skip to step 2.)

- a) Open the ScienceDirect website www.sciencedirect.com
- b) Click Register (top right)

c) Enter your email address

d) Enter details required and then click Create.

The image shows a registration form for Elsevier. At the top, the Elsevier logo is displayed in orange. Below the logo, the word "Register" is centered in a large, bold, black font. Underneath, the text "Create password to register" is centered in a smaller, grey font. The form contains several input fields: "Email" with the placeholder text "yourusername@domain.com", "Given name", "Family name", and "Password" (which has a small eye icon to its right). Below these fields is a checkbox labeled "Stay signed in (not recommended for shared devices)". Underneath the checkbox, there is a line of text: "By continuing you agree with our Terms and conditions and Privacy policy". At the bottom of the form, there are two buttons: a prominent blue "Register" button and a white button with a blue border labeled "I already have an account". The background of the form is a light grey map with street names like "ET ROW", "QUEEN STREET", "ET", "R K USE", and "PLA".

2) Activate your remote access

- a. Open the activate access page by clicking www.sciencedirect.com/science/activateaccess
- b. Enter your institution or company e-mail address and click continue.

- c. If your institution is setup for remote access, an email will be sent for you to confirm that you belong to the institution.

3) Open the email and click the link to gain remote access.

4) You will now be able to access ScienceDirect from any device, anywhere. Just open your browser, go to www.sciencedirect.com and login with your e-mail address and password.

Note: If your institution is not set up for remote access via email domain, please speak with your Administrator.
